EVERY YEAR, THE FOUNDATION OF THE QUEBEC CMA ORDER INVESTS THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IN A VITAL ASSET: THE ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE OF FUTURE CMAS. SCHOLARSHIPS WORTH $500 EACH ARE AWARDED TO WORTHY STUDENTS INTENDING TO BECOME CMAS.

Objective

Encourage outstanding students to pursue studies in management accounting.

Eligibility criteria

To be eligible for a scholarship, the applicant must:

- » be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident;
- » be eligible for a full-time university program in management (commerce or accounting);
- » pursue the goal of becoming a certified management accountant.

Application

The application must contain the following:

- » application form;
- » applicant's résumé;
- » official CEGEP transcript including the «R Score»;
- » copy of the application for university admission;
- » motivation letter that explains why the student is interested in the CMA profession and describes the extracurricular activities in which he or she is involved;
- » letter of recommendation;
- » any other relevant information.

Applicant selection

The Foundation will review all applications and select the scholarship recipients based on eligibility criteria. The decision of the Foundation is final and cannot be appealed.

Awarding of scholarship

A representative of the Foundation of the Quebec CMA Order will award the scholarship during the annual presentation in each CEGEP.
